

NEW!

Introducing our brand new range of

Tubular Fire Extinguisher Stands

A fire extinguisher might be a vital piece of equipment and mandatory for public settings, but we understand that where aesthetics are also important, minimalism is key.

Our brand new metal Tubular Stands are a great modern and discreet solution to fire extinguisher mounting yet still provide an obvious fire point for if and when it's required.

Available in a variety of finishes including Original Red, Stainless Steel, Polished Gold, and Antique Copper, as well as either a Double or Single stand, it's the perfect solution for a number of different environments

- Suitable for holding most extinguishers*
